

This is the seventh newsletter of FamiliesAndSocieties, a large-scale European research project investigating the diversity of family forms, relationships and life courses in Europe in relation to policies.

Our Topics

1. Interview with the Work Package 9 co-leader Gerda Neyer (Stockholm University)
2. FamiliesAndSocieties research news
3. Events
4. Sign-up for regular updates

1. “We need to look at how new social challenges and risks are coming up in order to fight inequalities” – Interview with Gerda Neyer, co-leader of the FamiliesAndSocieties Work Package 9

Read the complete interview on the website! More

2. FamiliesAndSocieties research news

Working paper series: 52 research reports on family issues can be found on the FamiliesAndSocieties webpage. They constitute a key reference about what has been written so far in terms of family-related foresight methods, family forms and their relation to the well-being of children, family dynamics among immigrants and their descendants in Europe, childcare arrangements and much more. More

Peer-reviewed Publications: Check out the FamiliesAndSocieties publications in prominent journals! More

Digests: Get up to date with the latest research through these short and comprehensive summaries of FamiliesAndSocieties publications! More

Policy Briefs: - Intergenerational Linkages in the Family: How Policies Shape the Organisation of Caring and Financial Supports for Family Members. More
- Vulnerability in Times of Family Diversity – A Practitioners’ View. More

3. Events.

Fourth Annual Stakeholder Seminar from FamiliesAndSocieties - Policies for families: Is there a best practice? Register for the final stakeholder seminar of our project to be held at the European Parliament in September. Only a few places left! More

European Population Conference 2016: Great research progress of the consortium reflected in numerous studies from members of FamiliesAndSocieties will be presented at the 2016 EPC! More

4. Sign-up for regular updates on the project.

Visit the FamiliesAndSocieties website to sign-up for updates about all of the recent publications and events of the FamiliesAndSocieties project. More

Imprint.

© Publisher: The Max Planck Society for the Advancement of Sciences on behalf of the consortium of the project "FamiliesAndSocieties – Changing families and sustainable societies: Policy contexts and diversity over the life course and across generations".

The newsletter is produced by the Secretariat of Population Europe, the network of Europe's leading demographic research centres (www.population-europe.eu). The opinions of the authors of the original publications do not necessarily reflect those held by the publisher or the editorial office.

Editors: Dr. Andreas Edel (V.i.S.d.P.), Dr. Daniela Vono de Vilhena.

Please inform us if you do not want to receive this newsletter.

Contact: press@population-europe.eu

This newsletter has received funding from the European Union's Seventh Framework Programme (FP7/2007-2013) under grant agreement n° 320116 for the research project FamiliesAndSocieties.

FamiliesAndSocieties (www.familiesandsocieties.eu) has the aim to investigate the diversity of family forms, relationships and life courses in Europe, to assess the compatibility of existing policies with these changes, and to contribute to evidence-based policy-making. The consortium brings together 25 leading universities and research institutes in 15 European countries and three transnational civil society organizations.